KNOWING JESUS AS THE
GOOD SHEPHERD & SHARING
THE RISEN CHRIST WITH ALL.

Be Still My Soul

There was once a man who lost everything. He was a farmer and lost all of his livestock. He had many children, and he lost them as well. He even lost what good health he had left. He lost everything. In spite of all these losses, in spite of all these hardships, this man had the most unique, faith-filled response I've ever heard. He said, "The Lord gave, and the Lord has taken away; blessed be the name of the Lord." This man, Job, did lose a lot. At the same time, though, Job rested his life in the hands of God trusting God to carry him through it all.

I doubt most of us would respond the same way Job did. Maybe we would, maybe at certain times we could, but I have to admit, it may be challenging for us to say "blessed be the name of the Lord" when we are facing serious challenges. That may not be our natural response, but it could be. In the face of loss, disease, and death, what comfort will we find in fury, or anger, or pain? Wouldn't it be much better to rest ourselves in the hands of God?

What Job went through always strikes me. Few of us will ever suffer such complete losses like Job did, although some of us will face similar situations. The question for us though is this, "How will you react when those times do come?" We could allow our grief in this world to swallow us alive, sapping our love for others, sucking out our will to live, crumbling our desires to even enjoy life. Thanks to Christ, though, the opposite could occur. Instead of folding inward upon ourselves and our grief, we could fall back into the arms of our loving God, the Creator of the heavens and the earth, and the redeemer of all creation.

There is a particular hymn in our hymnal entitled "Be Still, My Soul" (Hymn #534) which does an excellent job guiding us into those loving arms of our God. When faced with loss, with physical pain and with death, the hymnist says this:

*Be still, my soul; the Lord is on your side.
Bear patiently the cross of grief or pain;
Leave to your God to order and provide;
In every change He faithful will remain.
Be still, my soul; your best, your heavenly Friend
Through thorny ways leads to a joyful end.*

Friends, pains in this life will come. That is an unfortunate promise. The question, though, is this, "Where will you go when those pains come?" Thanks be to God we have a loving Savior in Jesus Christ who invites us to come to Him.

Blessings,
Pastor Becky

UMW NEWS

Submitted by Peggy Pearce

The United Methodist Women met in the Green Street foyer on Saturday, June 18 at 10 a.m.

Details for the hot dog sale on Saturday, July 16 were finalized. Things will be set up on the East Main Street lawn near the front steps of the church. People will be able to purchase items separately or as a 'meal'. If bought separately, Sahlen's hot dogs will sell for $2; all other items (snack bags, cookies, water/soda) are priced at $1 each. Put it altogether for just $4 ... can't beat that price! We'll be serving between 11 a.m. and 4 p.m. or until sold out.

While we originally thought we'd ask for donations of condiments, rolls, etc. we decided to limit our requests to just cookies and brownies. If you are able, please consider donating two or three dozen cookies or brownies. There will be a sign-up sheet at the church for you to indicate what kind of cookies you are making and how many. And, please if you could package them individually that would be very helpful. Please have your baked goods at the church at 10 a.m. on the 16th. Not a baker but still want to help? Money to help defray the costs of the hot dogs, rolls, etc. is always appreciated.

The hot dog sale will no sooner be over when the next project will be at hand, the August rummage sale. We'll be looking for volunteer help on July 31 after worship to set up tables and racks and pull out totes packed with items for sale. And then more volunteer help to sort and arrange during the week of August 1-6 (days and times to be announced later) and still more volunteers for the actual sale happening August 11, 12 and 13 (Thursday through Saturday). So please continue to sort through your closets, cupboards and drawers and bring your 'treasures' to the church. Things can be placed in the last two Sunday school rooms in the basement.

Thursday, August 11
12 noon to 7 p.m.
$5.00/bag

Friday, August 12
10 a.m. to 3 p.m.
$3.00/bag

Saturday, August 13
9 a.m. to 12 noon
$2.00/bag

A Note from Cheryl and Dudley

Dear Friends and Readers of Dudley Tails,

Do not be concerned if you do not see an article every month. I am getting older, and it is becoming more difficult to meet deadlines for the church newsletter. I am trying to spend more time with family lately, and... I am hoping to take my collection of Dudley tails and see if I can find a publisher that will make them into a book. Wish me luck!

Thanks for reading. Best wishes. Cheryl & Dudley.

COUNCIL OF CHURCHES NEWS

Submitted by Peggy Pearce

The Church Walking Tour planned for Saturday, July 16 is still scheduled, at least as of the date this newsletter is being printed and sent. If you are interested in touring the Cuba churches and learning a little bit about their history meet at Our Lady of Angels Roman Catholic Church at 10 o'clock that morning. The other times are 10:35 Christ Episcopal, 11:15 First Baptist, 12 noon United Methodist, and 12:40 North Park Wesleyan. The tour concludes at one o'clock.

The Council is truly thankful for the monthly food donations from this church that help fill the Food Pantry shelves. It is particularly gratifying that you take note of what is needed and then donate those items. At this time the supply of 'ready to serve' soup (like Progresso) is in short supply as are canned pasta meals (think Chef Boyardee Beefaroni). The cracker and snack bar shelf went from well stocked to almost bare in just a couple weeks, and cereal is always in demand. Juice (both boxes and bottles), peanut butter and jam/jelly are also needed. Any donations are welcome and appreciated ... well maybe not canned green beans.

☺ Thank you for supporting this community ministry so faithfully.

KNOWING JESUS AS THE
GOOD SHEPHERD & SHARING
THE RISEN CHRIST WITH ALL.

Be Still My Soul

There was once a man who lost everything. He was a farmer and lost all of his livestock. He had many children, and he lost them as well. He even lost what good health he had left. He lost everything. In spite of all these losses, in spite of all these hardships, this man had the most unique, faith-filled response I've ever heard. He said, "The Lord gave, and the Lord has taken away; blessed be the name of the Lord." This man, Job, did lose a lot. At the same time, though, Job rested his life in the hands of God trusting God to carry him through it all.

I doubt most of us would respond the same way Job did. Maybe we would, maybe at certain times we could, but I have to admit, it may be challenging for us to say "blessed be the name of the Lord" when we are facing serious challenges. That may not be our natural response, but it could be. In the face of loss, disease, and death, what comfort will we find in fury, or anger, or pain? Wouldn't it be much better to rest ourselves in the hands of God?

What Job went through always strikes me. Few of us will ever suffer such complete losses like Job did, although some of us will face similar situations. The question for us though is this, "How will you react when those times do come?" We could allow our grief in this world to swallow us alive, sapping our love for others, sucking out our will to live, crumbling our desires to even enjoy life. Thanks to Christ, though, the opposite could occur. Instead of folding inward upon ourselves and our grief, we could fall back into the arms of our loving God, the Creator of the heavens and the earth, and the redeemer of all creation.

There is a particular hymn in our hymnal entitled "Be Still, My Soul" (Hymn #534) which does an excellent job guiding us into those loving arms of our God. When faced with loss, with physical pain and with death, the hymnist says this:

*Be still, my soul; the Lord is on your side.
Bear patiently the cross of grief or pain;
Leave to your God to order and provide;
In every change He faithful will remain.
Be still, my soul; your best, your heavenly Friend
Through thorny ways leads to a joyful end.*

Friends, pains in this life will come. That is an unfortunate promise. The question, though, is this, "Where will you go when those pains come?" Thanks be to God we have a loving Savior in Jesus Christ who invites us to come to Him.

Blessings,
Pastor Becky

UMW NEWS

Submitted by Peggy Pearce

The United Methodist Women met in the Green Street foyer on Saturday, June 18 at 10 a.m.

Details for the hot dog sale on Saturday, July 16 were finalized. Things will be set up on the East Main Street lawn near the front steps of the church. People will be able to purchase items separately or as a 'meal'. If bought separately, Sahlen's hot dogs will sell for $2; all other items (snack bags, cookies, water/soda) are priced at $1 each. Put it altogether for just $4 ... can't beat that price! We'll be serving between 11 a.m. and 4 p.m. or until sold out.

While we originally thought we'd ask for donations of condiments, rolls, etc. we decided to limit our requests to just cookies and brownies. If you are able, please consider donating two or three dozen cookies or brownies. There will be a sign-up sheet at the church for you to indicate what kind of cookies you are making and how many. And, please if you could package them individually that would be very helpful. Please have your baked goods at the church at 10 a.m. on the 16th. Not a baker but still want to help? Money to help defray the costs of the hot dogs, rolls, etc. is always appreciated.

The hot dog sale will no sooner be over when the next project will be at hand, the August rummage sale. We'll be looking for volunteer help on July 31 after worship to set up tables and racks and pull out totes packed with items for sale. And then more volunteer help to sort and arrange during the week of August 1-6 (days and times to be announced later) and still more volunteers for the actual sale happening August 11, 12 and 13 (Thursday through Saturday). So please continue to sort through your closets, cupboards and drawers and bring your 'treasures' to the church. Things can be placed in the last two Sunday school rooms in the basement.

Thursday, August 11

12 noon to 7 p.m.

$5.00/bag

Friday, August 12

10 a.m. to 3 p.m.

$3.00/bag

Saturday, August 13

9 a.m. to 12 noon

$2.00/bag

A Note from Cheryl and Dudley

Dear Friends and Readers of Dudley Tails,

Do not be concerned if you do not see an article every month. I am getting older, and it is becoming more difficult to meet deadlines for the church newsletter. I am trying to spend more time with family lately, and... I am hoping to take my collection of Dudley tails and see if I can find a publisher that will make them into a book. Wish me luck!

Thanks for reading. Best wishes. Cheryl & Dudley.

COUNCIL OF CHURCHES NEWS

The Church Walking Tour planned for Saturday, July 16 is still scheduled, at least as of the date this newsletter is being printed and sent. If you are interested in touring the Cuba churches and learning a little bit about their history meet at Our Lady of Angels Roman Catholic Church at 10 o'clock that morning. The other times are 10:35 Christ Episcopal, 11:15 First Baptist, 12 noon United Methodist, and 12:40 North Park Wesleyan. The tour concludes at one o'clock.

The Council is truly thankful for the monthly food donations from this church that help fill the Food Pantry shelves. It is particularly gratifying that you take note of what is needed and then donate those items. At this time the supply of 'ready to serve' soup (like Progresso) is in short supply as are canned pasta meals (think Chef Boyardee Beefaroni). The cracker and snack bar shelf went from well stocked to almost bare in just a couple weeks, and cereal is always in demand. Juice (both boxes and bottles), peanut butter and jam/jelly are also needed. Any donations are welcome and appreciated ... well maybe not canned green beans.

😊 Thank you for supporting this community ministry so faithfully.

KNOWING JESUS AS THE
GOOD SHEPHERD & SHARING
THE RISEN CHRIST WITH ALL.

Be Still My Soul

There was once a man who lost everything. He was a farmer and lost all of his livestock. He had many children, and he lost them as well. He even lost what good health he had left. He lost everything. In spite of all these losses, in spite of all these hardships, this man had the most unique, faith-filled response I've ever heard. He said, "The Lord gave, and the Lord has taken away; blessed be the name of the Lord." This man, Job, did lose a lot. At the same time, though, Job rested his life in the hands of God trusting God to carry him through it all.

I doubt most of us would respond the same way Job did. Maybe we would, maybe at certain times we could, but I have to admit, it may be challenging for us to say "blessed be the name of the Lord" when we are facing serious challenges. That may not be our natural response, but it could be. In the face of loss, disease, and death, what comfort will we find in fury, or anger, or pain? Wouldn't it be much better to rest ourselves in the hands of God?

What Job went through always strikes me. Few of us will ever suffer such complete losses like Job did, although some of us will face similar situations. The question for us though is this, "How will you react when those times do come?" We could allow our grief in this world to swallow us alive, sapping our love for others, sucking out our will to live, crumbling our desires to even enjoy life. Thanks to Christ, though, the opposite could occur. Instead of folding inward upon ourselves and our grief, we could fall back into the arms of our loving God, the Creator of the heavens and the earth, and the redeemer of all creation.

There is a particular hymn in our hymnal entitled "Be Still, My Soul" (Hymn #534) which does an excellent job guiding us into those loving arms of our God. When faced with loss, with physical pain and with death, the hymnist says this:

*Be still, my soul; the Lord is on your side.
Bear patiently the cross of grief or pain;
Leave to your God to order and provide;
In every change He faithful will remain.
Be still, my soul; your best, your heavenly Friend
Through thorny ways leads to a joyful end.*

Friends, pains in this life will come. That is an unfortunate promise. The question, though, is this, "Where will you go when those pains come?" Thanks be to God we have a loving Savior in Jesus Christ who invites us to come to Him.

Blessings,
Pastor Becky

The United Methodist Women met in the Green Street foyer on Saturday, June 18 at 10 a.m.

Details for the hot dog sale on Saturday, July 16 were finalized. Things will be set up on the East Main Street lawn near the front steps of the church. People will be able to purchase items separately or as a 'meal'. If bought separately, Sahlen's hot dogs will sell for $2; all other items (snack bags, cookies, water/soda) are priced at $1 each. Put it altogether for just $4 ... can't beat that price! We'll be serving between 11 a.m. and 4 p.m. or until sold out.

While we originally thought we'd ask for donations of condiments, rolls, etc. we decided to limit our requests to just cookies and brownies. If you are able, please consider donating two or three dozen cookies or brownies. There will be a sign-up sheet at the church for you to indicate what kind of cookies you are making and how many. And, please if you could package them individually that would be very helpful. Please have your baked goods at the church at 10 a.m. on the 16th. Not a baker but still want to help? Money to help defray the costs of the hot dogs, rolls, etc. is always appreciated.

The hot dog sale will no sooner be over when the next project will be at hand, the August rummage sale. We'll be looking for volunteer help on July 31 after worship to set up tables and racks and pull out totes packed with items for sale. And then more volunteer help to sort and arrange during the week of August 1-6 (days and times to be announced later) and still more volunteers for the actual sale happening August 11, 12 and 13 (Thursday through Saturday). So please continue to sort through your closets, cupboards and drawers and bring your 'treasures' to the church. Things can be placed in the last two Sunday school rooms in the basement.

Thursday, August 11
12 noon to 7 p.m.
$5.00/bag

Friday, August 12
10 a.m. to 3 p.m.
$3.00/bag

Saturday, August 13
9 a.m. to 12 noon

A Note from Cheryl and Dudley

Dear Friends and Readers of Dudley Tails,

Do not be concerned if you do not see an article every month. I am getting older, and it is becoming more difficult to meet deadlines for the church newsletter. I am trying to spend more time with family lately, and... I am hoping to take my collection of Dudley tails and see if I can find a publisher that will make them into a book. Wish me luck!

Thanks for reading. Best wishes. Cheryl & Dudley.

The Church Walking Tour planned for Saturday, July 16 is still scheduled, at least as of the date this newsletter is being printed and sent. If you are interested in touring the Cuba churches and learning a little bit about their history meet at Our Lady of Angels Roman Catholic Church at 10 o'clock that morning. The other times are 10:35 Christ Episcopal, 11:15 First Baptist, 12 noon United Methodist, and 12:40 North Park Wesleyan. The tour concludes at one o'clock.

The Council is truly thankful for the monthly food donations from this church that help fill the Food Pantry shelves. It is particularly gratifying that you take note of what is needed and then donate those items. At this time the supply of 'ready to serve' soup (like Progresso) is in short supply as are canned pasta meals (think Chef Boyardee Beefaroni). The cracker and snack bar shelf went from well stocked to almost bare in just a couple weeks, and cereal is always in demand. Juice (both boxes and bottles), peanut butter and jam/jelly are also needed. Any donations are welcome and appreciated ... well maybe not canned green beans.

☺ Thank you for supporting this community ministry so faithfully.

Be Still My Soul

There was once a man who lost everything. He was a farmer and lost all of his livestock. He had many children, and he lost them as well. He even lost what good health he had left. He lost everything. In spite of all these losses, in spite of all these hardships, this man had the most unique, faith-filled response I've ever heard. He said, "The Lord gave, and the Lord has taken away; blessed be the name of the Lord." This man, Job, did lose a lot. At the same time, though, Job rested his life in the hands of God trusting God to carry him through it all.

I doubt most of us would respond the same way Job did. Maybe we would, maybe at certain times we could, but I have to admit, it may be challenging for us to say "blessed be the name of the Lord" when we are facing serious challenges. That may not be our natural response, but it could be. In the face of loss, disease, and death, what comfort will we find in fury, or anger, or pain? Wouldn't it be much better to rest ourselves in the hands of God?

What Job went through always strikes me. Few of us will ever suffer such complete losses like Job did, although some of us will face similar situations. The question for us though is this, "How will you react when those times do come?" We could allow our grief in this world to swallow us alive, sapping our love for others, sucking out our will to live, crumbling our desires to even enjoy life. Thanks to Christ, though, the opposite could occur. Instead of folding inward upon ourselves and our grief, we could fall back into the arms of our loving God, the Creator of the heavens and the earth, and the redeemer of all creation.

There is a particular hymn in our hymnal entitled "Be Still, My Soul" (Hymn #534) which does an excellent job guiding us into those loving arms of our God. When faced with loss, with physical pain and with death, the hymnist says this:

*Be still, my soul; the Lord is on your side.
Bear patiently the cross of grief or pain;
Leave to your God to order and provide;
In every change He faithful will remain.
Be still, my soul; your best, your heavenly Friend
Through thorny ways leads to a joyful end.*

Friends, pains in this life will come. That is an unfortunate promise. The question, though, is this, "Where will you go when those pains come?" Thanks be to God we have a loving Savior in Jesus Christ who invites us to come to Him.

Blessings,
Pastor Becky

UMW NEWS

The United Methodist Women met in the Green Street foyer on Saturday, June 18 at 10 a.m.

Details for the hot dog sale on Saturday, July 16 were finalized. Things will be set up on the East Main Street lawn near the front steps of the church. People will be able to purchase items separately or as a 'meal'. If bought separately, Sahlen's hot dogs will sell for $2; all other items (snack bags, cookies, water/soda) are priced at $1 each. Put it altogether for just $4 ... can't beat that price! We'll be serving between 11 a.m. and 4 p.m. or until sold out.

While we originally thought we'd ask for donations of condiments, rolls, etc. we decided to limit our requests to just cookies and brownies. If you are able, please consider donating two or three dozen cookies or brownies. There will be a sign-up sheet at the church for you to indicate what kind of cookies you are making and how many. And, please if you could package them individually that would be very helpful. Please have your baked goods at the church at 10 a.m. on the 16th. Not a baker but still want to help? Money to help defray the costs of the hot dogs, rolls, etc. is always appreciated.

The hot dog sale will no sooner be over when the next project will be at hand, the August rummage sale. We'll be looking for volunteer help on July 31 after worship to set up tables and racks and pull out totes packed with items for sale. And then more volunteer help to sort and arrange during the week of August 1-6 (days and times to be announced later) and still more volunteers for the actual sale happening August 11, 12 and 13 (Thursday through Saturday). So please continue to sort through your closets, cupboards and drawers and bring your 'treasures' to the church. Things can be placed in the last two Sunday school rooms in the basement.

Thursday, August 11

12 noon to 7 p.m.

$5.00/bag

Friday, August 12

10 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Dear Friends and Readers of Dudley Tails,

The Church Walking Tour planned for Saturday, July 16 is still scheduled, at least as of the date this newsletter is being printed and sent. If you are interested in touring the Cuba churches and learning a little bit about their history meet at Our Lady of Angels Roman Catholic Church at 10 o'clock that morning. The other times are 10:35 Christ Episcopal, 11:15 First Baptist, 12 noon United Methodist, and 12:40 North Park Wesleyan. The tour concludes at one o'clock.

The Council is truly thankful for the monthly food donations from this church that help fill the Food Pantry shelves. It is particularly gratifying that you take note of what is needed and then donate those items. At this time the supply of 'ready to serve' soup (like Progresso) is in short supply as are canned pasta meals (think Chef Boyardee Beefaroni). The cracker and snack bar shelf went from well stocked to almost bare in just a couple weeks, and cereal is always in demand. Juice (both boxes and bottles), peanut butter and jam/jelly are also needed. Any donations are welcome and appreciated ... well maybe not canned green beans.

😊 Thank you for supporting this community ministry so faithfully.

Be Still My Soul

There was once a man who lost everything. He was a farmer and lost all of his livestock. He had many children, and he lost them as well. He even lost what good health he had left. He lost everything. In spite of all these losses, in spite of all these hardships, this man had the most unique, faith-filled response I've ever heard. He said, "The Lord gave, and the Lord has taken away; blessed be the name of the Lord." This man, Job, did lose a lot. At the same time, though, Job rested his life in the hands of God trusting God to carry him through it all.

I doubt most of us would respond the same way Job did. Maybe we would, maybe at certain times we could, but I have to admit, it may be challenging for us to say "blessed be the name of the Lord" when we are facing serious challenges. That may not be our natural response, but it could be. In the face of loss, disease, and death, what comfort will we find in fury, or anger, or pain? Wouldn't it be much better to rest ourselves in the hands of God?

What Job went through always strikes me. Few of us will ever suffer such complete losses like Job did, although some of us will face similar situations. The question for us though is this, "How will you react when those times do come?" We could allow our grief in this world to swallow us alive, sapping our love for others, sucking out our will to live, crumbling our desires to even enjoy life. Thanks to Christ, though, the opposite could occur. Instead of folding inward upon ourselves and our grief, we could fall back into the arms of our loving God, the Creator of the heavens and the earth, and the redeemer of all creation.

There is a particular hymn in our hymnal entitled "Be Still, My Soul" (Hymn #534) which does an excellent job guiding us into those loving arms of our God. When faced with loss, with physical pain and with death, the hymnist says this:

*Be still, my soul; the Lord is on your side.
Bear patiently the cross of grief or pain;
Leave to your God to order and provide;
In every change He faithful will remain.
Be still, my soul; your best, your heavenly Friend
Through thorny ways leads to a joyful end.*

Friends, pains in this life will come. That is an unfortunate promise. The question, though, is this, "Where will you go when those pains come?" Thanks be to God we have a loving Savior in Jesus Christ who invites us to come to Him.

Blessings,
Pastor Becky

UMW NEWS

The United Methodist Women met in the Green Street foyer on Saturday, June 18 at 10 a.m.

Details for the hot dog sale on Saturday, July 16 were finalized. Things will be set up on the East Main Street lawn near the front steps of the church. People will be able to purchase items separately or as a 'meal'. If bought separately, Sahlen's hot dogs will sell for $2; all other items (snack bags, cookies, water/soda) are priced at $1 each. Put it altogether for just $4 ... can't beat that price! We'll be serving between 11 a.m. and 4 p.m. or until sold out.

While we originally thought we'd ask for donations of condiments, rolls, etc. we decided to limit our requests to just cookies and brownies. If you are able, please consider donating two or three dozen cookies or brownies. There will be a sign-up sheet at the church for you to indicate what kind of cookies you are making and how many. And, please if you could package them individually that would be very helpful. Please have your baked goods at the church at 10 a.m. on the 16th. Not a baker but still want to help? Money to help defray the costs of the hot dogs, rolls, etc. is always appreciated.

The hot dog sale will no sooner be over when the next project will be at hand, the August rummage sale. We'll be looking for volunteer help on July 31 after worship to set up tables and racks and pull out totes packed with items for sale. And then more volunteer help to sort and arrange during the week of August 1-6 (days and times to be announced later) and still more volunteers for the actual sale happening August 11, 12 and 13 (Thursday through Saturday). So please continue to sort through your closets, cupboards and drawers and bring your 'treasures' to the church. Things can be placed in the last two Sunday school rooms in the basement.

Thursday, August 11
12 noon to 7 p.m.
$5.00/bag

Friday, August 12
10 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Saturday, August 13
9 a.m. to 12 noon

A Note from Cheryl and Dudley

Dear Friends and Readers of Dudley Tails,

Do not be concerned if you do not see an article every month. I am getting older, and it is becoming more difficult to meet deadlines for the church newsletter. I am trying to spend more time with family lately, and... I am hoping to take my collection of Dudley tails and see if I can find a publisher that will make them into a book. Wish me luck!

Thanks for reading. Best wishes. Cheryl & Dudley.

The Church Walking Tour planned for Saturday, July 16 is still scheduled, at least as of the date this newsletter is being printed and sent. If you are interested in touring the Cuba churches and learning a little bit about their history meet at Our Lady of Angels Roman Catholic Church at 10 o'clock that morning. The other times are 10:35 Christ Episcopal, 11:15 First Baptist, 12 noon United Methodist, and 12:40 North Park Wesleyan. The tour concludes at one o'clock.

The Council is truly thankful for the monthly food donations from this church that help fill the Food Pantry shelves. It is particularly gratifying that you take note of what is needed and then donate those items. At this time the supply of 'ready to serve' soup (like Progresso) is in short supply as are canned pasta meals (think Chef Boyardee Beefaroni). The cracker and snack bar shelf went from well stocked to almost bare in just a couple weeks, and cereal is always in demand. Juice (both boxes and bottles), peanut butter and jam/jelly are also needed. Any donations are welcome and appreciated ... well maybe not canned green beans.

☺ Thank you for supporting this community ministry so faithfully.

Be Still My Soul

There was once a man who lost everything. He was a farmer and lost all of his livestock. He had many children, and he lost them as well. He even lost what good health he had left. He lost everything. In spite of all these losses, in spite of all these hardships, this man had the most unique, faith-filled response I've ever heard. He said, "The Lord gave, and the Lord has taken away; blessed be the name of the Lord." This man, Job, did lose a lot. At the same time, though, Job rested his life in the hands of God trusting God to carry him through it all.

I doubt most of us would respond the same way Job did. Maybe we would, maybe at certain times we could, but I have to admit, it may be challenging for us to say "blessed be the name of the Lord" when we are facing serious challenges. That may not be our natural response, but it could be. In the face of loss, disease, and death, what comfort will we find in fury, or anger, or pain? Wouldn't it be much better to rest ourselves in the hands of God?

What Job went through always strikes me. Few of us will ever suffer such complete losses like Job did, although some of us will face similar situations. The question for us though is this, "How will you react when those times do come?" We could allow our grief in this world to swallow us alive, sapping our love for others, sucking out our will to live, crumbling our desires to even enjoy life. Thanks to Christ, though, the opposite could occur. Instead of folding inward upon ourselves and our grief, we could fall back into the arms of our loving God, the Creator of the heavens and the earth, and the redeemer of all creation.

There is a particular hymn in our hymnal entitled "Be Still, My Soul" (Hymn #534) which does an excellent job guiding us into those loving arms of our God. When faced with loss, with physical pain and with death, the hymnist says this:

*Be still, my soul; the Lord is on your side.
Bear patiently the cross of grief or pain;
Leave to your God to order and provide;
In every change He faithful will remain.
Be still, my soul; your best, your heavenly Friend
Through thorny ways leads to a joyful end.*

Friends, pains in this life will come. That is an unfortunate promise. The question, though, is this, "Where will you go when those pains come?" Thanks be to God we have a loving Savior in Jesus Christ who invites us to come to Him.

Blessings,
Pastor Becky

The United Methodist Women met in the Green Street foyer on Saturday, June 18 at 10 a.m.

Details for the hot dog sale on Saturday, July 16 were finalized. Things will be set up on the East Main Street lawn near the front steps of the church. People will be able to purchase items separately or as a 'meal'. If bought separately, Sahlen's hot dogs will sell for $2; all other items (snack bags, cookies, water/soda) are priced at $1 each. Put it altogether for just $4 ... can't beat that price! We'll be serving between 11 a.m. and 4 p.m. or until sold out.

While we originally thought we'd ask for donations of condiments, rolls, etc. we decided to limit our requests to just cookies and brownies. If you are able, please consider donating two or three dozen cookies or brownies. There will be a sign-up sheet at the church for you to indicate what kind of cookies you are making and how many. And, please if you could package them individually that would be very helpful. Please have your baked goods at the church at 10 a.m. on the 16th. Not a baker but still want to help? Money to help defray the costs of the hot dogs, rolls, etc. is always appreciated.

The hot dog sale will no sooner be over when the next project will be at hand, the August rummage sale. We'll be looking for volunteer help on July 31 after worship to set up tables and racks and pull out totes packed with items for sale. And then more volunteer help to sort and arrange during the week of August 1-6 (days and times to be announced later) and still more volunteers for the actual sale happening August 11, 12 and 13 (Thursday through Saturday). So please continue to sort through your closets, cupboards and drawers and bring your 'treasures' to the church. Things can be placed in the last two Sunday school rooms in the basement.

The Church Walking Tour planned for Saturday, July 16 is still scheduled, at least as of the date this newsletter is being printed and sent. If you are interested in touring the Cuba churches and learning a little bit about their history meet at Our Lady of Angels Roman Catholic Church at 10 o'clock that morning. The other times are 10:35 Christ Episcopal, 11:15 First Baptist, 12 noon United Methodist, and 12:40 North Park Wesleyan. The tour concludes at one o'clock.

The Council is truly thankful for the monthly food donations from this church that help fill the Food Pantry shelves. It is particularly gratifying that you take note of what is needed and then donate those items. At this time the supply of 'ready to serve' soup (like Progresso) is in short supply as are canned pasta meals (think Chef Boyardee Beefaroni). The cracker and snack bar shelf went from well stocked to almost bare in just a couple weeks, and cereal is always in demand. Juice (both boxes and bottles), peanut butter and jam/jelly are also needed. Any donations are welcome and appreciated ... well maybe not canned green beans.

☺ Thank you for supporting this community ministry so faithfully.

KNOWING JESUS AS THE
GOOD SHEPHERD & SHARING
THE RISEN CHRIST WITH ALL.

Be Still My Soul

There was once a man who lost everything. He was a farmer and lost all of his livestock. He had many children, and he lost them as well. He even lost what good health he had left. He lost everything. In spite of all these losses, in spite of all these hardships, this man had the most unique, faith-filled response I've ever heard. He said, "The Lord gave, and the Lord has taken away; blessed be the name of the Lord." This man, Job, did lose a lot. At the same time, though, Job rested his life in the hands of God trusting God to carry him through it all.

I doubt most of us would respond the same way Job did. Maybe we would, maybe at certain times we could, but I have to admit, it may be challenging for us to say "blessed be the name of the Lord" when we are facing serious challenges. That may not be our natural response, but it could be. In the face of loss, disease, and death, what comfort will we find in fury, or anger, or pain? Wouldn't it be much better to rest ourselves in the hands of God?

What Job went through always strikes me. Few of us will ever suffer such complete losses like Job did, although some of us will face similar situations. The question for us though is this, "How will you react when those times do come?" We could allow our grief in this world to swallow us alive, sapping our love for others, sucking out our will to live, crumbling our desires to even enjoy life. Thanks to Christ, though, the opposite could occur. Instead of folding inward upon ourselves and our grief, we could fall back into the arms of our loving God, the Creator of the heavens and the earth, and the redeemer of all creation.

There is a particular hymn in our hymnal entitled "Be Still, My Soul" (Hymn #534) which does an excellent job guiding us into those loving arms of our God. When faced with loss, with physical pain and with death, the hymnist says this:

*Be still, my soul; the Lord is on your side.
Bear patiently the cross of grief or pain;
Leave to your God to order and provide;
In every change He faithful will remain.
Be still, my soul; your best, your heavenly Friend
Through thorny ways leads to a joyful end.*

Friends, pains in this life will come. That is an unfortunate promise. The question, though, is this, "Where will you go when those pains come?" Thanks be to God we have a loving Savior in Jesus Christ who invites us to come to Him.

Blessings,
Pastor Becky

UMW NEWS

The United Methodist Women met in the Green Street foyer on Saturday, June 18 at 10 a.m.

Details for the hot dog sale on Saturday, July 16 were finalized. Things will be set up on the East Main Street lawn near the front steps of the church. People will be able to purchase items separately or as a 'meal'. If bought separately, Sahlen's hot dogs will sell for $2; all other items (snack bags, cookies, water/soda) are priced at $1 each. Put it altogether for just $4 ... can't beat that price! We'll be serving between 11 a.m. and 4 p.m. or until sold out.

While we originally thought we'd ask for donations of condiments, rolls, etc. we decided to limit our requests to just cookies and brownies. If you are able, please consider donating two or three dozen cookies or brownies. There will be a sign-up sheet at the church for you to indicate what kind of cookies you are making and how many. And, please if you could package them individually that would be very helpful. Please have your baked goods at the church at 10 a.m. on the 16th. Not a baker but still want to help? Money to help defray the costs of the hot dogs, rolls, etc. is always appreciated.

The hot dog sale will no sooner be over when the next project will be at hand, the August rummage sale. We'll be looking for volunteer help on July 31 after worship to set up tables and racks and pull out totes packed with items for sale. And then more volunteer help to sort and arrange during the week of August 1-6 (days and times to be announced later) and still more volunteers for the actual sale happening August 11, 12 and 13 (Thursday through Saturday). So please continue to sort through your closets, cupboards and drawers and bring your 'treasures' to the church. Things can be placed in the last two Sunday school rooms in the basement.

Thursday, August 11

12 noon to 7 p.m.

$5.00/bag

Friday, August 12

10 a.m. to 3 p.m.

$3.00/bag

Saturday, August 13

Dear Friends and Readers of Dudley Tails,

Do not be concerned if you do not see an article every month. I am getting older, and it is becoming more difficult to meet deadlines for the church newsletter. Thanks for reading. Best wishes. Cheryl & Dudley.

COUNCIL OF CHURCHES NEWS

The Church Walking Tour planned for Saturday, July 16 is still scheduled, at least as of the date this newsletter is being printed and sent. If you are interested in touring the Cuba churches and learning a little bit about their history meet at Our Lady of Angels Roman Catholic Church at 10 o'clock that morning. The other times are 10:35 Christ Episcopal, 11:15 First Baptist, 12 noon United Methodist, and 12:40 North Park Wesleyan. The tour concludes at one o'clock.

The Council is truly thankful for the monthly food donations from this church that help fill the Food Pantry shelves. It is particularly gratifying that you take note of what is needed and then donate those items. At this time the supply of 'ready to serve' soup (like Progresso) is in short supply as are canned pasta meals (think Chef Boyardee Beefaroni). The cracker and snack bar shelf went from well stocked to almost bare in just a couple weeks, and cereal is always in demand. Juice (both boxes and bottles), peanut butter and jam/jelly are also needed. Any donations are welcome and appreciated ... well maybe not canned green beans.

☺ Thank you for supporting this community ministry so faithfully.

The Church Walking Tour planned for Saturday, July 16 is still scheduled, at least as of the date this newsletter is being printed and sent. If you are interested in touring the Cuba churches and learning a little bit about their history meet at Our Lady of Angels Roman Catholic Church at 10 o'clock that morning. The other times are 10:35 Christ Episcopal, 11:15 First Baptist, 12 noon United Methodist, and 12:40 North Park Wesleyan. The tour concludes at one o'clock.

The Council is truly thankful for the monthly food donations from this church that help fill the Food Pantry shelves. It is particularly gratifying that you take note of what is needed and then donate those items. At this time the supply of 'ready to serve' soup (like Progresso) is in short supply as are canned pasta meals (think Chef Boyardee Beefaroni). The cracker and snack bar shelf went from well stocked to almost bare in just a couple weeks, and cereal is always in demand. Juice (both boxes and bottles), peanut butter and jam/jelly are also needed. Any donations are welcome and appreciated ... well maybe not canned green beans.

☺ Thank you for supporting this community ministry so faithfully.

Be Still My Soul

There was once a man who lost everything. He was a farmer and lost all of his livestock. He had many children, and he lost them as well. He even lost what good health he had left. He lost everything. In spite of all these losses, in spite of all these hardships, this man had the most unique, faith-filled response I've ever heard. He said, "The Lord gave, and the Lord has taken away; blessed be the name of the Lord." This man, Job, did lose a lot. At the same time, though, Job rested his life in the hands of God trusting God to carry him through it all.

I doubt most of us would respond the same way Job did. Maybe we would, maybe at certain times we could, but I have to admit, it may be challenging for us to say "blessed be the name of the Lord" when we are facing serious challenges. That may not be our natural response, but it could be. In the face of loss, disease, and death, what comfort will we find in fury, or anger, or pain? Wouldn't it be much better to rest ourselves in the hands of God?

What Job went through always strikes me. Few of us will ever suffer such complete losses like Job did, although some of us will face similar situations. The question for us though is this, "How will you react when those times do come?" We could allow our grief in this world to swallow us alive, sapping our love for others, sucking out our will to live, crumbling our desires to even enjoy life. Thanks to Christ, though, the opposite could occur. Instead of folding inward upon ourselves and our grief, we could fall back into the arms of our loving God, the Creator of the heavens and the earth, and the redeemer of all creation.

There is a particular hymn in our hymnal entitled "Be Still, My Soul" (Hymn #534) which does an excellent job guiding us into those loving arms of our God. When faced with loss, with physical pain and with death, the hymnist says this:

*Be still, my soul; the Lord is on your side.
Bear patiently the cross of grief or pain;
Leave to your God to order and provide;
In every change He faithful will remain.
Be still, my soul; your best, your heavenly Friend
Through thorny ways leads to a joyful end.*

Friends, pains in this life will come. That is an unfortunate promise. The question, though, is this, "Where will you go when those pains come?" Thanks be to God we have a loving Savior in Jesus Christ who invites us to come to Him.

Blessings,
Pastor Becky

UMW NEWS

The United Methodist Women met in the Green Street foyer on Saturday, June 18 at 10 a.m.

Details for the hot dog sale on Saturday, July 16 were finalized. Things will be set up on the East Main Street lawn near the front steps of the church. People will be able to purchase items separately or as a 'meal'. If bought separately, Sahlen's hot dogs will sell for $2; all other items (snack bags, cookies, water/soda) are priced at $1 each. Put it altogether for just $4 ... can't beat that price! We'll be serving between 11 a.m. and 4 p.m. or until sold out.

While we originally thought we'd ask for donations of condiments, rolls, etc. we decided to limit our requests to just cookies and brownies. If you are able, please consider donating two or three dozen cookies or brownies. There will be a sign-up sheet at the church for you to indicate what kind of cookies you are making and how many. And, please if you could package them individually that would be very helpful. Please have your baked goods at the church at 10 a.m. on the 16th. Not a baker but still want to help? Money to help defray the costs of the hot dogs, rolls, etc. is always appreciated.

The hot dog sale will no sooner be over when the next project will be at hand, the August rummage sale. We'll be looking for volunteer help on July 31 after worship to set up tables and racks and pull out totes packed with items for sale. And then more volunteer help to sort and arrange during the week of August 1-6 (days and times to be announced later) and still more volunteers for the actual sale happening August 11, 12 and 13 (Thursday through Saturday). So please continue to sort through your closets, cupboards and drawers and bring your 'treasures' to the church. Things can be placed in the last two Sunday school rooms in the basement.

Thursday, August 11

12 noon to 7 p.m.

$5.00/bag

Friday, August 12

10 a.m. to 3 p.m.

$3.00/bag

Saturday, August 13

A Note from Cheryl and Dudley

Dear Friends and Readers of Dudley Tails,

Do not be concerned if you do not see an article every month. I am getting older, and it is becoming more difficult to meet deadlines for the church newsletter. I am trying to spend more time with family lately, and... I am hoping to take my collection of Dudley tails and see if I can find a publisher that will make them into a book. Wish me luck!

Thanks for reading. Best wishes. Cheryl & Dudley.

The Church Walking Tour planned for Saturday, July 16 is still scheduled, at least as of the date this newsletter is being printed and sent. If you are interested in touring the Cuba churches and learning a little bit about their history meet at Our Lady of Angels Roman Catholic Church at 10 o'clock that morning. The other times are 10:35 Christ Episcopal, 11:15 First Baptist, 12 noon United Methodist, and 12:40 North Park Wesleyan. The tour concludes at one o'clock.

The Council is truly thankful for the monthly food donations from this church that help fill the Food Pantry shelves. It is particularly gratifying that you take note of what is needed and then donate those items. At this time the supply of 'ready to serve' soup (like Progresso) is in short supply as are canned pasta meals (think Chef Boyardee Beefaroni). The cracker and snack bar shelf went from well stocked to almost bare in just a couple weeks, and cereal is always in demand. Juice (both boxes and bottles), peanut butter and jam/jelly are also needed. Any donations are welcome and appreciated ... well maybe not canned green beans.

☺ Thank you for supporting this community ministry so faithfully.

Be Still My Soul

There was once a man who lost everything. He was a farmer and lost all of his livestock. He had many children, and he lost them as well. He even lost what good health he had left. He lost everything. In spite of all these losses, in spite of all these hardships, this man had the most unique, faith-filled response I've ever heard. He said, "The Lord gave, and the Lord has taken away; blessed be the name of the Lord." This man, Job, did lose a lot. At the same time, though, Job rested his life in the hands of God trusting God to carry him through it all.

I doubt most of us would respond the same way Job did. Maybe we would, maybe at certain times we could, but I have to admit, it may be challenging for us to say "blessed be the name of the Lord" when we are facing serious challenges. That may not be our natural response, but it could be. In the face of loss, disease, and death, what comfort will we find in fury, or anger, or pain? Wouldn't it be much better to rest ourselves in the hands of God?

What Job went through always strikes me. Few of us will ever suffer such complete losses like Job did, although some of us will face similar situations. The question for us though is this, "How will you react when those times do come?" We could allow our grief in this world to swallow us alive, sapping our love for others, sucking out our will to live, crumbling our desires to even enjoy life. Thanks to Christ, though, the opposite could occur. Instead of folding inward upon ourselves and our grief, we could fall back into the arms of our loving God, the Creator of the heavens and the earth, and the redeemer of all creation.

There is a particular hymn in our hymnal entitled "Be Still, My Soul" (Hymn #534) which does an excellent job guiding us into those loving arms of our God. When faced with loss, with physical pain and with death, the hymnist says this:

*Be still, my soul; the Lord is on your side.
Bear patiently the cross of grief or pain;
Leave to your God to order and provide;
In every change He faithful will remain.
Be still, my soul; your best, your heavenly Friend
Through thorny ways leads to a joyful end.*

Friends, pains in this life will come. That is an unfortunate promise. The question, though, is this, "Where will you go when those pains come?" Thanks be to God we have a loving Savior in Jesus Christ who invites us to come to Him.

Blessings,
Pastor Becky

UMW NEWS

Submitted by Peggy Pearce

The United Methodist Women met in the Green Street foyer on Saturday, June 18 at 10 a.m.

Details for the hot dog sale on Saturday, July 16 were finalized. Things will be set up on the East Main Street lawn near the front steps of the church. People will be able to purchase items separately or as a 'meal'. If bought separately, Sahlen's hot dogs will sell for $2; all other items (snack bags, cookies, water/soda) are priced at $1 each. Put it altogether for just $4 ... can't beat that price! We'll be serving between 11 a.m. and 4 p.m. or until sold out.

While we originally thought we'd ask for donations of condiments, rolls, etc. we decided to limit our requests to just cookies and brownies. If you are able, please consider donating two or three dozen cookies or brownies. There will be a sign-up sheet at the church for you to indicate what kind of cookies you are making and how many. And, please if you could package them individually that would be very helpful. Please have your baked goods at the church at 10 a.m. on the 16th. Not a baker but still want to help? Money to help defray the costs of the hot dogs, rolls, etc. is always appreciated.

The hot dog sale will no sooner be over when the next project will be at hand, the August rummage sale. We'll be looking for volunteer help on July 31 after worship to set up tables and racks and pull out totes packed with items for sale. And then more volunteer help to sort and arrange during the week of August 1-6 (days and times to be announced later) and still more volunteers for the actual sale happening August 11, 12 and 13 (Thursday through Saturday). So please continue to sort through your closets, cupboards and drawers and bring your 'treasures' to the church. Things can be placed in the last two Sunday school rooms in the basement.

Thursday, August 11

12 noon to 7 p.m.

$5.00/bag

Friday, August 12

10 a.m. to 3 p.m.

$3.00/bag

Saturday, August 13

9 a.m. to 12 noon

$2.00/bag

A Note from Cheryl and Dudley

Dear Friends and Readers of Dudley Tails,

Do not be concerned if you do not see an article every month. I am getting older, and it is becoming more difficult to meet deadlines for the church newsletter. I am trying to spend more time with family lately, and... I am hoping to take my collection of Dudley tails and see if I can find a publisher that will make them into a book. Wish me luck!

Thanks for reading. Best wishes. Cheryl & Dudley.

COUNCIL OF CHURCHES NEWS

The Church Walking Tour planned for Saturday, July 16 is still scheduled, at least as of the date this newsletter is being printed and sent. If you are interested in touring the Cuba churches and learning a little bit about their history meet at Our Lady of Angels Roman Catholic Church at 10 o'clock that morning. The other times are 10:35 Christ Episcopal, 11:15 First Baptist, 12 noon United Methodist, and 12:40 North Park Wesleyan. The tour concludes at one o'clock.

The Council is truly thankful for the monthly food donations from this church that help fill the Food Pantry shelves. It is particularly gratifying that you take note of what is needed and then donate those items. At this time the supply of 'ready to serve' soup (like Progresso) is in short supply as are canned pasta meals (think Chef Boyardee Beefaroni). The cracker and snack bar shelf went from well stocked to almost bare in just a couple weeks, and cereal is always in demand. Juice (both boxes and bottles), peanut butter and jam/jelly are also needed. Any donations are welcome and appreciated ... well maybe not canned green beans.

☺ Thank you for supporting this community ministry so faithfully.

Be Still My Soul

There was once a man who lost everything. He was a farmer and lost all of his livestock. He had many children, and he lost them as well. He even lost what good health he had left. He lost everything. In spite of all these losses, in spite of all these hardships, this man had the most unique, faith-filled response I've ever heard. He said, "The Lord gave, and the Lord has taken away; blessed be the name of the Lord." This man, Job, did lose a lot. At the same time, though, Job rested his life in the hands of God trusting God to carry him through it all.

I doubt most of us would respond the same way Job did. Maybe we would, maybe at certain times we could, but I have to admit, it may be challenging for us to say "blessed be the name of the Lord" when we are facing serious challenges. That may not be our natural response, but it could be. In the face of loss, disease, and death, what comfort will we find in fury, or anger, or pain? Wouldn't it be much better to rest ourselves in the hands of God?

What Job went through always strikes me. Few of us will ever suffer such complete losses like Job did, although some of us will face similar situations. The question for us though is this, "How will you react when those times do come?" We could allow our grief in this world to swallow us alive, sapping our love for others, sucking out our will to live, crumbling our desires to even enjoy life. Thanks to Christ, though, the opposite could occur. Instead of folding inward upon ourselves and our grief, we could fall back into the arms of our loving God, the Creator of the heavens and the earth, and the redeemer of all creation.

There is a particular hymn in our hymnal entitled "Be Still, My Soul" (Hymn #534) which does an excellent job guiding us into those loving arms of our God. When faced with loss, with physical pain and with death, the hymnist says this:

*Be still, my soul; the Lord is on your side.
Bear patiently the cross of grief or pain;
Leave to your God to order and provide;
In every change He faithful will remain.
Be still, my soul; your best, your heavenly Friend
Through thorny ways leads to a joyful end.*

Friends, pains in this life will come. That is an unfortunate promise. The question, though, is this, "Where will you go when those pains come?" Thanks be to God we have a loving Savior in Jesus Christ who invites us to come to Him.

Blessings,
Pastor Becky

The United Methodist Women met in the Green Street foyer on Saturday, June 18 at 10 a.m.

Details for the hot dog sale on Saturday, July 16 were finalized. Things will be set up on the East Main Street lawn near the front steps of the church. People will be able to purchase items separately or as a 'meal'. If bought separately, Sahlen's hot dogs will sell for $2; all other items (snack bags, cookies, water/soda) are priced at $1 each. Put it altogether for just $4 ... can't beat that price! We'll be serving between 11 a.m. and 4 p.m. or until sold out.

While we originally thought we'd ask for donations of condiments, rolls, etc. we decided to limit our requests to just cookies and brownies. If you are able, please consider donating two or three dozen cookies or brownies. There will be a sign-up sheet at the church for you to indicate what kind of cookies you are making and how many. And, please if you could package them individually that would be very helpful. Please have your baked goods at the church at 10 a.m. on the 16th. Not a baker but still want to help? Money to help defray the costs of the hot dogs, rolls, etc. is always appreciated.

The hot dog sale will no sooner be over when the next project will be at hand, the August rummage sale. We'll be looking for volunteer help on July 31 after worship to set up tables and racks and pull out totes packed with items for sale. And then more volunteer help to sort and arrange during the week of August 1-6 (days and times to be announced later) and still more volunteers for the actual sale happening August 11, 12 and 13 (Thursday through Saturday). So please continue to sort through your closets, cupboards and drawers and bring your 'treasures' to the church. Things can be placed in the last two Sunday school rooms in the basement.

A Note from Cheryl and Dudley

Dear Friends and Readers of Dudley Tails,

Do not be concerned if you do not see an article every month. I am getting older, and it is becoming more difficult to meet deadlines for the church newsletter. I am trying to spend more time with family lately, and... I am hoping to take my collection of Dudley tails and see if I can find a publisher that will make them into a book. Wish me luck!

Thanks for reading. Best wishes. Cheryl & Dudley.

COUNCIL OF CHURCHES NEWS

The Church Walking Tour planned for Saturday, July 16 is still scheduled, at least as of the date this newsletter is being printed and sent. If you are interested in touring the Cuba churches and learning a little bit about their history meet at Our Lady of Angels Roman Catholic Church at 10 o'clock that morning. The other times are 10:35 Christ Episcopal, 11:15 First Baptist, 12 noon United Methodist, and 12:40 North Park Wesleyan. The tour concludes at one o'clock.

The Council is truly thankful for the monthly food donations from this church that help fill the Food Pantry shelves. It is particularly gratifying that you take note of what is needed and then donate those items. At this time the supply of 'ready to serve' soup (like Progresso) is in short supply as are canned pasta meals (think Chef Boyardee Beefaroni). The cracker and snack bar shelf went from well stocked to almost bare in just a couple weeks, and cereal is always in demand. Juice (both boxes and bottles), peanut butter and jam/jelly are also needed. Any donations are welcome and appreciated ... well maybe not canned green beans.

☺ Thank you for supporting this community ministry so faithfully.

Be Still My Soul

There was once a man who lost everything. He was a farmer and lost all of his livestock. He had many children, and he lost them as well. He even lost what good health he had left. He lost everything. In spite of all these losses, in spite of all these hardships, this man had the most unique, faith-filled response I've ever heard. He said, "The Lord gave, and the Lord has taken away; blessed be the name of the Lord." This man, Job, did lose a lot. At the same time, though, Job rested his life in the hands of God trusting God to carry him through it all.

I doubt most of us would respond the same way Job did. Maybe we would, maybe at certain times we could, but I have to admit, it may be challenging for us to say "blessed be the name of the Lord" when we are facing serious challenges. That may not be our natural response, but it could be. In the face of loss, disease, and death, what comfort will we find in fury, or anger, or pain? Wouldn't it be much better to rest ourselves in the hands of God?

What Job went through always strikes me. Few of us will ever suffer such complete losses like Job did, although some of us will face similar situations. The question for us though is this, "How will you react when those times do come?" We could allow our grief in this world to swallow us alive, sapping our love for others, sucking out our will to live, crumbling our desires to even enjoy life. Thanks to Christ, though, the opposite could occur. Instead of folding inward upon ourselves and our grief, we could fall back into the arms of our loving God, the Creator of the heavens and the earth, and the redeemer of all creation.

There is a particular hymn in our hymnal entitled "Be Still, My Soul" (Hymn #534) which does an excellent job guiding us into those loving arms of our God. When faced with loss, with physical pain and with death, the hymnist says this:

*Be still, my soul; the Lord is on your side.
Bear patiently the cross of grief or pain;
Leave to your God to order and provide;
In every change He faithful will remain.
Be still, my soul; your best, your heavenly Friend
Through thorny ways leads to a joyful end.*

Friends, pains in this life will come. That is an unfortunate promise. The question, though, is this, "Where will you go when those pains come?" Thanks be to God we have a loving Savior in Jesus Christ who invites us to come to Him.

The United Methodist Women met in the Green Street foyer on Saturday, June 18 at 10 a.m.

Details for the hot dog sale on Saturday, July 16 were finalized. Things will be set up on the East Main Street lawn near the front steps of the church. People will be able to purchase items separately or as a 'meal'. If bought separately, Sahlen's hot dogs will sell for $2; all other items (snack bags, cookies, water/soda) are priced at $1 each. Put it altogether for just $4 ... can't beat that price! We'll be serving between 11 a.m. and 4 p.m. or until sold out.

While we originally thought we'd ask for donations of condiments, rolls, etc. we decided to limit our requests to just cookies and brownies. If you are able, please consider donating two or three dozen cookies or brownies. There will be a sign-up sheet at the church for you to indicate what kind of cookies you are making and how many. And, please if you could package them individually that would be very helpful. Please have your baked goods at the church at 10 a.m. on the 16th. Not a baker but still want to help? Money to help defray the costs of the hot dogs, rolls, etc. is always appreciated.

The hot dog sale will no sooner be over when the next project will be at hand, the August rummage sale. We'll be looking for volunteer help on July 31 after worship to set up tables and racks and pull out totes packed with items for sale. And then more volunteer help to sort and arrange during the week of August 1-6 (days and times to be announced later) and still more volunteers for the actual sale happening August 11, 12 and 13 (Thursday through Saturday). So please continue to sort through your closets, cupboards and drawers and bring your 'treasures' to the church. Things can be placed in the last two Sunday school rooms in the basement.

A Note from Cheryl and Dudley

Dear Friends and Readers of Dudley Tails,

Do not be concerned if you do not see an article every month. I am getting older, and it is becoming more difficult to meet deadlines for the church newsletter. I am trying to spend more time with family lately, and... I am hoping to take my collection of Dudley tails and see if I can find a publisher that will make them into a book. Wish me luck!

Thanks for reading. Best wishes. Cheryl & Dudley.

COUNCIL OF CHURCHES NEWS

The Church Walking Tour planned for Saturday, July 16 is still scheduled, at least as of the date this newsletter is being printed and sent. If you are interested in touring the Cuba churches and learning a little bit about their history meet at Our Lady of Angels Roman Catholic Church at 10 o'clock that morning. The other times are 10:35 Christ Episcopal, 11:15 First Baptist, 12 noon United Methodist, and 12:40 North Park Wesleyan. The tour concludes at one o'clock.

The Council is truly thankful for the monthly food donations from this church that help fill the Food Pantry shelves. It is particularly gratifying that you take note of what is needed and then donate those items. At this time the supply of 'ready to serve' soup (like Progresso) is in short supply as are canned pasta meals (think Chef Boyardee Beefaroni). The cracker and snack bar shelf went from well stocked to almost bare in just a couple weeks, and cereal is always in demand. Juice (both boxes and bottles), peanut butter and jam/jelly are also needed. Any donations are welcome and appreciated ... well maybe not canned green beans.

☺ Thank you for supporting this community ministry so faithfully.

Be Still My Soul

There was once a man who lost everything. He was a farmer and lost all of his livestock. He had many children, and he lost them as well. He even lost what good health he had left. He lost everything. In spite of all these losses, in spite of all these hardships, this man had the most unique, faith-filled response I've ever heard. He said, "The Lord gave, and the Lord has taken away; blessed be the name of the Lord." This man, Job, did lose a lot. At the same time, though, Job rested his life in the hands of God trusting God to carry him through it all.

I doubt most of us would respond the same way Job did. Maybe we would, maybe at certain times we could, but I have to admit, it may be challenging for us to say "blessed be the name of the Lord" when we are facing serious challenges. That may not be our natural response, but it could be. In the face of loss, disease, and death, what comfort will we find in fury, or anger, or pain? Wouldn't it be much better to rest ourselves in the hands of God?

What Job went through always strikes me. Few of us will ever suffer such complete losses like Job did, although some of us will face similar situations. The question for us though is this, "How will you react when those times do come?" We could allow our grief in this world to swallow us alive, sapping our love for others, sucking out our will to live, crumbling our desires to even enjoy life. Thanks to Christ, though, the opposite could occur. Instead of folding inward upon ourselves and our grief, we could fall back into the arms of our loving God, the Creator of the heavens and the earth, and the redeemer of all creation.

There is a particular hymn in our hymnal entitled "Be Still, My Soul" (Hymn #534) which does an excellent job guiding us into those loving arms of our God. When faced with loss, with physical pain and with death, the hymnist says this:

*Be still, my soul; the Lord is on your side.
Bear patiently the cross of grief or pain;
Leave to your God to order and provide;
In every change He faithful will remain.
Be still, my soul; your best, your heavenly Friend
Through thorny ways leads to a joyful end.*

Friends, pains in this life will come. That is an unfortunate promise. The question, though, is this, "Where will you go when those pains come?" Thanks be to God we have a loving Savior in Jesus Christ who invites us to come to Him.

Blessings,
Pastor Becky

The United Methodist Women met in the Green Street foyer on Saturday, June 18 at 10 a.m.

Details for the hot dog sale on Saturday, July 16 were finalized. Things will be set up on the East Main Street lawn near the front steps of the church. People will be able to purchase items separately or as a 'meal'. If bought separately, Sahlen's hot dogs will sell for $2; all other items (snack bags, cookies, water/soda) are priced at $1 each. Put it altogether for just $4 ... can't beat that price! We'll be serving between 11 a.m. and 4 p.m. or until sold out.

While we originally thought we'd ask for donations of condiments, rolls, etc. we decided to limit our requests to just cookies and brownies. If you are able, please consider donating two or three dozen cookies or brownies. There will be a sign-up sheet at the church for you to indicate what kind of cookies you are making and how many. And, please if you could package them individually that would be very helpful. Please have your baked goods at the church at 10 a.m. on the 16th. Not a baker but still want to help? Money to help defray the costs of the hot dogs, rolls, etc. is always appreciated.

The hot dog sale will no sooner be over when the next project will be at hand, the August rummage sale. Put it altogether for just $4 ... can't beat that price! We'll be serving between 11 a.m. and 4 p.m. or until sold out.

While we originally thought we'd ask for donations of condiments, rolls, etc. we decided to limit our requests to just cookies and brownies. If you are able, please consider donating two or three dozen cookies or brownies. There will be a sign-up sheet at the church for you to indicate what kind of cookies you are making and how many. And, please if you could package them individually that would be very helpful. Please have your baked goods at the church at 10 a.m. on the 16th. Not a baker but still want to help? Money to help defray the costs of the hot dogs, rolls, etc. is always appreciated.

The hot dog sale will no sooner be over when the next project will be at hand, the August rummage sale. We'll be looking for volunteer help on July 31 after worship to set up tables and racks and pull out totes packed with items for sale. And then more volunteer help to sort and arrange during the week of August 1-6 (days and times to be announced later) and still more volunteers for the actual sale happening August 11, 12 and 13 (Thursday through Saturday). So please continue to sort through your closets, cupboards and drawers and bring your 'treasures' to the church. Things can be placed in the last two Sunday school rooms in the basement.

A Note from Cheryl and Dudley

Dear Friends and Readers of Dudley Tails,

Do not be concerned if you do not see an article every month. I am getting older, and it is becoming more difficult to meet deadlines for the church newsletter. I am trying to spend more time with family lately, and... I am hoping to take my collection of Dudley tails and see if I can find a publisher that will make them into a book. Wish me luck!

Thanks for reading. Best wishes. Cheryl & Dudley.

COUNCIL OF CHURCHES NEWS

Submitted by Peggy Pearce

The Church Walking Tour planned for Saturday, July 16 is still scheduled, at least as of the date this newsletter is being printed and sent. If you are interested in touring the Cuba churches and learning a little bit about their history meet at Our Lady of Angels Roman Catholic Church at 10 o'clock that morning. The other times are 10:35 Christ Episcopal, 11:15 First Baptist, 12 noon United Methodist, and 12:40 North Park Wesleyan. The tour concludes at one o'clock.

The Council is truly thankful for the monthly food donations from this church that help fill the Food Pantry shelves. It is particularly gratifying that you take note of what is needed and then donate those items. At this time the supply of 'ready to serve' soup (like Progresso) is in short supply as are canned pasta meals (think Chef Boyardee Beefaroni). The cracker and snack bar shelf went from well stocked to almost bare in just a couple weeks, and cereal is always in demand. Juice (both boxes and bottles), peanut butter and jam/jelly are also needed. Any donations are welcome and appreciated ... well maybe not canned green beans.

☺ Thank you for supporting this community ministry so faithfully.
