PASTORAL LETTER

What are they? What are nine questions church visitors aren't asking (but churches are still trying to answer!) These questions were asked by Matt Rosnie in his blog posted Aug. 13, 2012. The italics are my comments.

1. So how soon can I get involved with your committees.? I have yet to meet a visitor/guest/new attender with a passion to be on a COMMITTEE. I have met many with gifts and talents who want to use them to be in MINISTRY. Big difference.
2. Can I get a longer bulletin – maybe something with more detail or with half-a-dozen inserts that fall all over the floor during the service? Many churches have done away with bulletins other than one sheet listing upcoming activities and ministries. The entire worship service is up on the screen.
3. Will you please single me out in front of all the people in worship this morning? Most people my age and younger are mortified by this. We prefer to be personally greeted by a few members of the congregation.
4. Would you please send some “callers” by my house later and interrupt me while I fix dinner? I have to rethink this one. I have often encouraged members of my congregations to do this.
5. Can you sit us in those uncomfortable pews with our fidgety kids and aging parents?
Some members of our congregation aren't coming to church because they have physical issues that prevent them from sitting through the service. Is the furniture in your home as uncomfortable as in your church home?
6. How quickly can I fill out a pledge card?
7. Does this church have weekly meetings, rehearsals and other activities that will consume most of my family's free time? And you thought only pastors asked this kind of question.
8. I need more paperwork! Can you give me a folder filled with glossy pamphlets, old newsletters, and denominational statements of belief? The pastor's version: Bring on that charge conference paperwork!
9. During the worship service, can someone with a monotonous voice speak (at length) about all the insider church happenings and people's private health matters? I find this so inspiring.

A Matter of Rank

Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., is known as the son of the famous President, but he had an impressive career in his own right. He graduated from Harvard and served in the military in W.W. I. He was one of the founders of the American Legion and was Assistant Secretary of the Navy like his father was before him. He was Governor General of the Philippines and Governor of Puerto Rico. He ended his public career and entered business in 1933. During his military career he was awarded every military combat decoration including the Congressional Medal of Honor. With the start of W.W. II he returned to active duty and was promoted to Brigadier General.

A story is told of Roosevelt from the early days of W.W. II. He was waiting to board a plane on which he had a reservation. He overheard a private at the ticket window begging for a ticket: "I'm going overseas in three days. I want to see my Ma before I go. I can go home and back only if I travel by plane!" He was told, however, that there were no seats available on the plane. At that moment Roosevelt stepped up and said that he would surrender his ticket and his seat on the plane for the private. A fellow officer protested: "But General, this is a matter of rank!" Roosevelt gave a masterful reply: "That's right. He's a son. I'm only a general."

The highest rank which God could bestow upon us is to call us his children. "See what love the Father has given us, that we should be called children of God; and that is what we are" (1 Jn. 3:1). As children we are given the closest possible fellowship in a relationship with God. We are given all the privileges of heirs. We are granted the status of family name and recognition. We are also given the awesome responsibility to live up to the expectations that go with being a child of God. If it is a matter of rank, deference goes to the child of the King, and "that is what we are."

DYK: Submitted by Dean Wildrick

NASHVILLE, Tenn.—The number of Scout troops and other youth-serving agencies sponsored by United Methodist congregations is likely to increase over the next 12 months. The General Commission on United Methodist Men, meeting Sept. 6-7 in Nashville, learned that there are 363,876 youth meeting in 10,868 BSA units sponsored by 6,700 United Methodist congregations, the second highest among all denominations. That number is likely to increase because of the presence of 234 scouting ministry specialists in 47 annual conferences and because Mississippi Area Bishop James Swanson, chair of the commission, has written a letter to other active bishops encouraging them to hold Bishop's Dinners for Scouting. These dinners help local congregations understand how youth-serving programs can expand their ministries to their communities and provide an opportunity to invite unchurched families to participate in their congregations.

Efforts within the United Methodist Church are part of a New Unit Campaign by the BSA.

United Methodist Women's News

Submitted by Judy Zayac

UMW – Nine women and Pastor Tim convened for the September UMW meeting on Tuesday, September 20th at 5:30 at Moonwinks Restaurant where we had an excellent meal, good fellowship and a very brief meeting.

The lone agenda item was to be sure everything is in order for the Fall Trash & Treasures sale. Cindy Dutton offered to do the advertising. The dates for the sale are Thursday, October 3rd from 6:00-8:00 pm, Friday, October 4th 9-3:00 and Saturday, October 5th 9-noon. On Saturday you can purchase all you can fit into a shopping bag for only $2. What a deal.

We will gladly accept any help you can give on Sunday, September 29th after worship service when we haul all the treasures from the Glory Hole and Sunday school room and set up tables. So please put those dates on your calendar and be sure to bring you "treasures" to the church prior to the sale.

Our next meeting will be on Saturday, January 4th at noon when we will have a soup and bread luncheon meeting. All women of the church are welcomed, so please join us.

A CAT GOES TO HEAVEN

A cat dies and goes to Heaven. God meets him at the gate and says, 'you have been a good cat all of these years. Anything you desire is yours, all you have to do is ask.' The cat says, 'Well, I lived all my life with a poor family on a farm and had to sleep on hardwood floors.' God says, 'Say no more.' And instantly, a fluffy pillow appears.

A few days later, 6 mice are killed in a tragic accident and they go to Heaven. God meets them at the gate with the same offer that He made the cat. The mice said, 'All our lives we've had to run. Cats, dogs and even women with brooms have chased us. If we could only have a pair of roller skates, we wouldn't have to run anymore.' God says, 'Say no more.' And instantly, each mouse is fitted with a beautiful pair of tiny roller skates.

About a week later, God decides to check and see how the cat is doing. The cat is sound asleep on his new pillow. God gently wakes him and asks, 'How are you doing? Are you happy here?' The cat yawns and stretches and says, 'Oh, I've never been happier in my life. And those Meals on Wheels you've been sending over are the best!'

PASTOR'S TEACHING

"How good and pleasant it is when brothers live together in unity!" (Psalm 133:1)

Fellowship has lost most of its Biblical meaning today. "Fellowship" now usually refers to casual conversation, socializing, food, and fun. "Where do you fellowship?" has come to mean "Where do you attend?" "Stay after for fellowship" usually means "Wait for refreshments." Real fellowship is experiencing Christian life together, and smaller is better.

You can worship with a crowd, but you can't fellowship with one. Once a group becomes larger than about 10 people, someone stops participating – usually the quietest person – and a few people will dominate the group. Twelve is about the maximum. Jesus taught us this. As a healthy body of Christ grows, it becomes a collection of many small cells, linked to each other and cementing the members of the body together.

In real fellowship:

People experience authenticity. There is genuine sharing of hurts, feelings, and doubts. We face our fear of exposure, rejection, and pain.

People experience mutuality. They give and receive, depending on each other. People in fellowship develop reciprocal relationships and share responsibilities.

People experience empathy. "I understand what you're going through, and what you feel is neither strange nor crazy."

People experience mercy. Mistakes aren't rubbed in. Instead, there is forgiveness of one another. Sadly, bitterness and resentment often destroy fellowship.

The true body of Christ is a fellowship of sharing and studying God's Word together. Simple. Not too challenging. As we grow deeper as the body of Christ, we become a fellowship of serving. People at this level participate in mission trips, or at least serve in community ministries. Challenging, but certainly doable. The deepest we can grow as the body of Christ is to become the fellowship of suffering. We carry each other's burdens. This is very challenging because some of us are overwhelmed by our own burdens. Remember mutuality?

Paul advised, "Live in harmony with each other." "Romans 12:16"

CROP Hunger Walks are community-wide events sponsored by Church World Service and organized by local congregations or groups to raise funds to end hunger at home and around the world. With its inception in 1969, CROP Hunger Walks are "viewed by many as the granddaddy of charity walks," notes the Los Angeles Times (Oct. 26, 2009).

On October 17, 1969, a thousand people in Bismarck, ND, walked in what may have been the first-ever CROP Hunger Walk – and raised $25,000 to help stop hunger. Several other CROP Hunger Walks occurred soon thereafter, and before long there were hundreds of Walks each year in communities nationwide.

Currently, well over 2,000 communities across the U.S. join in more than 1,600 CROP Hunger Walks each year. More than five million CROP Hunger Walkers have participated in more than 36,000 CROP Hunger Walks in the last two decades alone.

The Cuba Council of Churches Crop Walk will be held on Sunday October 6 at 1:30 PM at the Cuba-Rushford Central High School Track. Rob Cornell is our contact.

Autumn Harvest

(by Elizabeth Mason)

Praise God for cherished autumn days, with fields of glowing amber, and of burnished browns.
For harvest-time, when leaves fall whispering gently to the frosty ground.
Give thanks for nature's generosity.
Gifts of honey and of bread, for wheat and corn, and orchards filled with purple plums and apples turning bronze and scarlet red.
Each sunflower now in autumn dress
no longer wears the frills of cheery summer gold, but scarves of wrinkled taffeta around their precious heavy laden loads.
The beauty of this palette of delight
dispels the gloom of summer's slow and timely death.
And so, with ever grateful hearts,
we wake up to October's chilly breath.
