

The Shepherd's Messenger

December 2010

Pastor Sunny's Rays

This morning as I was thinking about writing this article, (along with the 4 million other things that this time of year brings), I spotted this week's Patriot that I had yet to read. So I picked it up and sat down with my cup of coffee and began to read it. In the letters to the editor there was a letter that was thanking Ellsworth Swift for an article he had done that brought back memories of her hometown of Cuba. So that set me to thinking about memories of holidays with my family. Someone asked me recently why I liked making the dressing for the Community Thanksgiving Dinner. My answer was; "Because it brings my Mom closer for that time, it's a connection." I love doing the dressing.

Then Christmas came to mind since this is the December Newsletter I let my mind go way back. I remember a song my sister, Sandra, taught me. It was called: "Christmas Alphabet"

C is for the candy hanging on the Christmas tree
H is for the happiness with all the family
R is for the reindeer passing by the window pane
I is for the icing on the cake as sweet as sugar cane
S is for the stockings hanging on the chimney wall
T is for the toys beneath the tree so very tall
M is for the mistletoe where everyone is kissed
A is for the angels who make up the Christmas list
S is for ole Santa who makes all the kids his pets

Be good and he'll bring everything in your Christmas Alphabet

I remember Christmas morning and Sis trying to keep me in bed till Mom could get the wood stove going from the coals left overnight. I remember getting a Suzy Smart Doll, 1962 Suzy Smart, 24" tall, vinyl head, sleep eyes, rooted blonde hair, hard plastic body, jointed knees; came with a plastic red, yellow and black desk chair and easel, she wears a schoolgirl plaid jumper with white short sleeve shirt and black ribbon tie, and a matching plaid beret with black shoes. As you can see I was thoroughly enamored with that doll. I also remember when I got my pony and for Christmas that year my brother, Gary, bought me a beautiful saddle to ride Rex with. Then there were the Christmases with Larry. My first gift from him while we were dating was a stuffed Owl, the second year was a Chanel perfume called Cachet, and the third year before we were married was matching CPO jackets. Yes folks we are that bloomin' old.

Then there were the years with the kids. What fun those years were. When Adam was about 6 or 7 years old we got the kids a dog, I remember all three of them tiptoeing into our bed room at 3:30 in the morning, whispering; Mom, Mom, we hear something in the kitchen. We think its alive! They were so excited. They named him Radar after the character on M*A*S*H. I remember the last Christmas gifts that my Mom got the girls. Now I love my mother but she was slipping at this point in time. Heather and Meredith received these gaudy earring and necklace. They were dangly and seriously they looked like something a saloon girl would wear in the old west. We gently talked Mom out of buying gifts after that.

Church World Service responds to tsunami, volcano

MENTAWAI DISTRICT, Indonesia (UMNS) — Indonesia is dealing with two disasters: a powerful earthquake that triggered a tsunami that has killed more than 400 people, with the death toll rising, and a volcanic eruption at Mount Merapi that has prompted displacement of hundreds. The 7.7-magnitude earthquake and 10-foot-high tsunami Oct. 25 stem from a fault on the west coast of Sumatra island. In immediate response to the tsunami, Church World Service — a partner of The United Methodist Church — is providing 140 baby care kits and is assessing additional needs in partnership with the Mentawai Christian Protestant Church. Church World Service staff members are monitoring the situation at Mount Merapi. Contributions to support the emergency response work of Church World Service may be made online.

United Methodist Women

submitted by Maggie Watson

We started off with a dinner and a room sale on Sept 9. There were twelve ladies present. We chose officers: Maggie Watson, President (thru Dec), Sue Simmons, Secretary and MaryAnn Pfouts, Treasurer.

During the summer, five ladies attended a Mission Work shop in Chautauqua called International Day. We donated a health kit and a layette kit. (Patti wrote a great article in the messenger and I hope you had the chance to read about it).

The October rummage sale was a success we made $886.59.

We purchased new table cloths.

The Holiday Assistance Program is under way. The UMW donates $600 and we ask the congregation to help with raising $400, which enables us to give each family $500. We give to two families who need our help.

The November meeting had 12 ladies. We had a guest speaker, Sandra Lathrop, gave a very informative and eye opener presentation about the Red Bird Mission. Red Bird is one of the UMW missions that we support, we send them yearly $200. The UMW purchased through Church World Service, two goats, 50 chicks and 5 Mosquito nets as another of our mission projects. During the year we also gave $100 to the Genesis House. Doris Kellogg and Sue Simmons put on a beautiful brunch for the ladies.

Needed: A president for UMW beginning Jan. 2011....you facilitate the meetings, write a report for the newsletter and a year end report...come on, isn't it your turn?

Memories are one of the great gifts that God gives us. I love the feeling that the smell of the spices and onions and the celery makes and the memories it brings. The way my heart warms when I think of the Christmases when the kids were little. God is so good to us even when we aren't very good to him, even though our commitment to him is thin and weak, when we go out of our way to be unkind to each other, when we chose to ignore our call, God is still good.

So this Christmas I want to challenge you all. Take a moment each day and remember—remember Christmases from your childhood, when your kids were little, remember when you realized that the baby whose birth we will celebrate is also the man who saved us, who bought our souls to be in Heaven with the Father, the Son and the Heavenly Host. I also challenge you to "Spend less, and give more!" The memories should not be about money that was spent or the gifts themselves, they should be about the feelings of safety, grace, and God's eternal gift of life in his kingdom. So let me wrap this up with hopefully new words to the Christmas Alphabet:

C is for the Christ child who came to save us
H is for the Holy Spirit who guides us in our call
R is for repentance that cleanses our very soul
I is for the great I AM that came to make us whole
S is for salvation a gift of love not lost
T is for the tears shed as He died upon the cross
M is for the mercy God so freely gives
A is for the Angels who proclaimed that He lives
S is for the serenity He has brought to the earth.

Be good for he has paid your debt in this Christmas Alphabet

May the peace, the joy, the hope and the love of this season, flow over you and please always remember that God loves you and so do we!
